

I demand that the most innovative and useful broadcast medium developed in the last fifty years be allowed to broadcast instant weather and traffic 24/7 !!!! I get the information and programming I want, when I want it no matter where I am in the country. The National Association of Broadcasters should be ashamed of themselves for trying to stop XM satellite radio.